

What's Your Attitude?

Don't miss this exclusive day-long training event specifically designed to sharpen your instrument flying skills. Maximize your safety potential by refreshing your knowledge of real world Instrument Flight Rules (IFR) operations, planning, implementation, risk assessment and task management. Training will address realistic vs. (in some cases) outdated training, rapidly changing technology, and emphasis on the fundamentals of instrument flying. Regardless of whether you are an instrument student or a seasoned instrument pilot, this workshop is sure to advance your instrument flying skills! Click on the link below for all of the details and to register TODAY!

Directions: Check map link for driving directions. Meeting in lower level assembly area.
